3. [redacted] Representative William C. Bray called regarding an article by Ray Cromley, of the American News Enterprise, in which he makes reference to writings by Major General Song Hao with regard to the view of many Americans who oppose the U. S. involvement in Vietnam. Mr. Bray is most interested in this and would like to let Americans who are opposing our position in Vietnam know how their position is being treated in North Vietnam. Mr. Bray said he had the Library of Congress working on this for ten days but they had been unable to come up with the article. He asked us to see what we might do.

4. [redacted] Mr. Marian Czarnecki, of the House Foreign Affairs Committee staff, called to say that Representative Clement J. Zablocki was having dinner tomorrow night with Polish Ambassador Brozniak and asked if we would make any suggestions regarding the Congressman's meeting with the Ambassador to him sometime tomorrow. We are checking with DD/P on this.
